

Reminders:

For your protection, please inspect your package immediately upon delivery and do not sign for or accept any shipping container with external damage. To report physical damage that occurred during delivery, Frys.com must be contacted within the first 48 hours of the product being delivered.

All Frys.com returns require a Return Authorization (RA) number. Please call 1-877-688-7678 to obtain an RA if you do not yet have one. Please have your order number available when you call.

Ensure that all merchandise is in its original packaging with the UPC or barcode intact, and that all components, cables, and accessories are included.

Use a traceable ground shipping method that provides a tracking number. Please write this information below and keep it for your reference.
